MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am happy to present the Annual report 2021-2022 which highlights the efforts of JANA VIKAS in the trouble time of the COVID-19 Pandemic. In spite of challenges, Jana Vikas has given priority in promoting livelihood through agroecology and reaching out to communities in accessing Government provisions. I am glad to highlight our initiative in building local capacities toward achieving the Sustainable Development Goals.

It is a joy and honour to take forward the legacy of the organization and work alongside a dedicated and hardworking team of Staff and Board members. In the face of unprecedented challenges, my colleagues and on the field, volunteers worked tirelessly to deliver a remarkable outreach to the poorest and needy during the trouble times. I would like to thank you all for your support in 2021-2022. Let us work together towards our shared goal of making us society a better place for all.

I place on record my gratitude to our donors, board members, partners, and colleagues for their support and untiring efforts in reaching out to the underprivileged communities.

I would like to wish you all the best to Director and his team to continue the same efforts ahead.

Most Rev. John Barwa, SVD
President

FROM SECRETARY

It gives me great pleasure to present the Annual report 2021-2022 which highlights the efforts of JANA VIKAS, Kandhamal in building local capacities to offset global threats like Disasters like the COVID pandemic and Livelihood issues. People faced continuous onslaughts of COVID-19 impact in every spear of life. In this condition, Jana Vikas directly reached out to unreached communities of operational areas in Kandhamal in particular and Odisha at large. It was an opportunity to collaborate and complement the efforts of government departments at block and district levels.

Apart from addressing the immediate issues of COVID like relief and vaccination drive, this year Jana Vikas also introduced several other impending climate change adaptation interventions like Traditional farming, Preservation of traditional seeds, promotion of safe migration, ensuring enrolment of students in the schools, liaising government department to access government provisions, assisting students to access Pre & Post-Matric Scholarships and revival of cultural and training unemployed youth for livelihood.

It is a pleasure and honour to take forward the legacy of this renowned organization and work alongside a dedicated and hardworking team of Staff and Board members. I would like to thank various stakeholders for your support in 2021-2022. Let us work together towards our shared goal of making our society a better place for all.

I place on record my gratitude to our donors, board members, partners, and colleagues for their support and untiring efforts in reaching out to the underprivileged communities - whose trust and respect are the biggest recognition we can ever hope to earn. I gratefully thank all the community members who gave us an opportunity to work with them.

Madan Sual Singh
Secretary, Jana Vikas

BACKGROUND

JANA VIKAS, in its drive for human development of the poor, needy and the marginalized, implemented the major projects like “Sustainable Development of Women through Cooperatives”, “Strengthening of People Led Development”, “Securing Cultural Identity and reviving indigenous communities”, “Prevention of Human Trafficking”, “Empowerment of Minority Children in Education and Child Protection through exercising Child Right”, “Learning Recovery Program for Students of Covid-19 Pandemic in Kandhamal”, “Skill Development for unemployed youth through Driving Training”, “Minority Rights Group Europe (MRGE), “Improving Quality of Life among the Religious Minorities in Odisha (IQLRM)” and “People Led Development for Food Sovereignty”.

The main aim of these major projects is to reduce poverty, promotion of organic farming to increase food security, enhance livelihood for a dignified living for farmers, SHGs and community; integrate joyful learning for the children who are weak in studies and reach out to many people for prevention of Covid. It was made possible with the support of national and international organisations whose humanitarian aid enable us to serve better.
